Domaine de L'Hortus

2021 Bergerie de L'Hortus Blanc (Organic)

30% Sauvignon Blanc, 30% Roussanne, 20% Viognier,
10% Chardonnay, 5% Petit Manseng, 5% Muscat
IGP St. Guilhem Le Desert

Domaine de L'Hortus was established in 1978 when Jean Orliac, a professor of agriculture and avid rock climber, fell "head over heels" in love with the Languedoc region and purchased land around the beautiful Pic St Loup cliffs. After years spent befriending the vines and reviving 50 hectares of wooded slopes, Jean and his family bottled their first organic wine in 1990. They seduce us yet again with this crisp white blend. Light and lively, Bergerie Blanc lights up the glass with pale, shimmering gold. The smooth, balanced palate tantalizes with complex notes of fresh herbs, mint, white flowers, and citrus. The finesse and fullness of this cuvée make it an ideal aperitif, as well as a delicious companion to fish, shellfish, and cheese.

ROSÉ

Domaine Rouanet Montcélèbre – 2021 Se Canta Rosé (Organic)

100% Cinsault – IGP Pays d'Oc

Rouanet Montcélèbre is a family owned vineyard of 22 hectares (55 acres) located at the base of the Massif Central, in the Minervois appellation. Audrey Rouanet is the sixth generation in her family to farm the vineyards and make the family wines. She is an exceptional winemaker who studied in Tuscany and California. Audrey took over when her father was killed in a tragic work accident. Se Canta is a very old popular folk song that Audrey's father used to sing; she named this special wine in his honor. This crisp, dry rosé sings the song of the Cinsault grape grown at high altitude in white, rocky soils. A wine that sings of this terroir and sparkles with fresh strawberries, citrus and peach flavors in your glass. The minerality on the finish from the limestone soil can make you dream of the far away South of France. This aromatic rosé with lots of minerality is fantastic with charcuterie, grilled prawns and vegetables dipped in a lemon-mustard aioli.

45% Grenache, 45% Syrah, 10% Cinsault – AOP Terrasses du Larzac

Domaine de La Réserve d'O was founded in 2005 by the husband and wife team, Marie and Frederic Chauffray.
