Domaine La Louvière 2019 Le Galant (Organic)

100% Chardonnay
IGP Pays d'Oc

Domaine La Louvière is owned by the famous Grohe family of designer bathroom hardware. Connoisseurs of quality, the family recognized the value of the terroir and acquired the domaine. Winner of multiple Silver and Gold medals in France and Vienna, including Gold at the Concours Général Agricole de Paris, this organic unoaked Chardonnay delights and surprises. Inviting aromas of tropical fruit, banana, and pineapple glide into a gentle, fresh finish. The “perfect gentleman,” Le Galant is accommodating in structure and mouth feel with charming notes of brioche, nuts, and fig. The expressive fruit of this unoaked Chardonnay make it an exquisite companion to shellfish, coquilles St. Jacques, Thai chicken, and seafood.

Terre Des 2 Sources 2020 Amourettes Blanc

38% Roussanne, 32% Vermentino, 30% Viognier
IGP Pays d'Oc

Terre des 2 Sources began with two couples who shared a dream — to find the best land and wine-growing environment and to craft exceptional wines. The foursome realized their dream with an estate on high elevation just south of the Cevennes mountains with a rich diversity of soils, slopes, aquatic features and climate. Kirsten Creasy is the winemaker, and her husband Glen manages the vineyards. Kirsten has a long and successful career making wines in different places throughout the world. She is native to New Zealand and has made wines there as well as in Australia and France. An elegant blend of three different grapes, this white presents a soft, full and fruity palate with a refreshing, dry finish. The aroma is initially flinty then resolves into an appealing citrus flower bouquet. This soft yet crisp refresher complements creamy seafood dishes and livens up simple salads.

ROSÉ

Terre des Dames - 2020 Le Rosé (Organic)

60% Mourvèdre, 30% Grenache, 10% Syrah – AOC Languedoc

Lidewij Van Wilgen left a high-powered career in advertising to pursue her dream of creating luscious, beautiful, organic wines. After visits to Bordeaux and the Northern Rhône, she became intrigued by what people were calling the “new world” of wine in France – the Languedoc. She found a beautiful farm house in a small valley with perfect terroir and Terre Des Dames was born. Since then, Lidewij has become one of the women leading the Languedoc wine making renaissance. Her wines have received awards from Decanter and Wine Spectator, and glowing reviews from British wine maven Jancis Robinson. Hints of raspberry harmonize with delicate white flowers in this organic rosé. Luscious fruit lingers on the palate. A bright, fresh rosé you'll want to drink again and again. Charmingly adaptable, Le Rosé adds a festive tone to deli meat and cheese, or causal flair to Grilled Salmon and Peaches. A delicious refresher on its own.

Château Borde Rouge - 2018 Carminal Rouge (Organic)

40% Grenache, 30% Carignan, 30% Syrah - AOP Corbières

The historic Château Borde-Rouge is managed by Claudine Ladouce. She is assisted in the wine making by the highly respected oenologue Christian Lacassy. The vineyard of Château Borde-Rouge is one of the most picturesque geographies in the region, featuring a natural red rock amphitheater, hundred-year-old pines sculpted by the wind, and a white, rocky ridge shot through with other earth tones. Red soils very specific to the domaine are rich in iron oxide. Dazzling carmine reflections light up each glass of this organic blend of Grenache, Carignan, and Syrah. Aromas of black fruit entwine with notes of Mediterranean herbs and spice. The tannins are bold and silky, a fine accompaniment to a feast of meats and laughter. Savor Carminal Rouge with hearty meat dishes such as pepper steak and beef tenderloin.

Domaine des Schistes - 2017 Caune d'en Joffre (Organic)

90% Carignan Noir, 10% Grenache Noir - AOP Cotes Du Roussillon Villages Tautavel

Family-run Domaine Des Schistes was founded in the early days of the winemaking renaissance in the Languedoc-Roussillon. In 1989, the grandparents and parents of the current young winemaker, Mikael, broke away from the local cooperative winery to start their own adventure. Since then, Domaine Des Schistes has been creating delicious wines from grapes grown and harvested in their own vineyards. This organic, Carignan-dominant red was awarded 90 points by Robert Parker. A supple, easy-drinking cuvée, the mouth is full-bodied and ripe with red fruit. The mild tannins are similar in feel to ground cinnamon. An expressive nose of cherries and red plums balances with a lingering mineral finish, without any overt oak character. Enjoy with beef brisket, lamb gyros, and cured meats. Excellent paired with Basque cheese, young Manchego cheese, and herb and spice-influenced cuisine.
